

Career Options: AP[®] World History

Oh, the possibilities...

Data Analysts

Evaluate, analyze, and use data to solve problems for businesses and governments.

Educators

Teach world history at the secondary or collegiate level.

Filmmakers

Rely on their understanding of contemporary society to tell stories of the human experience.

Lawyers

Evaluate evidence and formulate arguments in representing parties in legal matters.

Foreign Service Officers

Apply their understanding of regional issues to pursue diplomatic goals.

Policy Analysts

Apply their understanding of contemporary global issues to help public or private organizations tailor policy decisions.

Museum Curators

Manage and preserve collections of historical documents and artifacts. Curators shape how museum visitors experience history through exhibits.